

Volunteer for the City of Medina's Bicentennial Celebration

Medina's Bicentennial Celebration kicks off this coming November and the Celebration Committee is inviting you to become an active part of this historic time in our community's history. Please review the information below and then provide the requested information to become a Celebration participant. If other members of your family wish to be involved, please add their information on the appropriate lines. If you wish to sponsor an event or make a donation, please use the "Sponsorships and Donations" link.

Volunteers (While children are welcome to become volunteers with their families, we request that this form be completed only by those 18 years of age or older. Thank you.)
